

Friday - October 18th

Location - Old Dutch Church

3:00 PM to 9:00 PM - Registration for reenactors will be open. The table & marquee will be set up by the big tree near the front of the church. Reenactors will then use the side door to camp overnight in Bethany Hall, access to the restrooms is also available.

There is some wonderful planning & presentations occurring inside the Sanctuary, both an organ recital and a presentation by Drew Shuptar-Rayvis.

Saturday - October 19th

Location - Old Dutch Church

8:00 AM - 10:00 AM - Registration for reenactors will be open. The table & marquee will be set up by the big tree near the front of the church.

Registration will include a map for Parking Locations for reenactors and the location of the British & Continental Camps.

Note on Parking

Reenactors will be allowed to park at Kingston Plaza located at 151 Plaza Rd, Kingston, NY 12401.

Reenactors will be allowed to drop their camp items off at their respective camps (Person's House or the DAR House) then park their car in the Plaza.

Additional parking at St. Joseph's Church specifically for presenters will be discussed.

10:00 AM - Officer's Meeting

An officer's meeting will be held in Bethany Hall to discuss the details of the Tactical Weapons Demonstration.

Officer's and relevant stakeholders will walk the route of the battle.

Saturday - October 19th

Location - DAR House (British Camp)

Location - Person's House (Continental Camp)

10:00 AM - 1:30 PM -

Reenactors will have camp set up in their locations noted above. There will be ongoing interpretation throughout the day.

Tents are welcome overnight but there will be no security. Reenactors are encouraged to sleep in Bethany Hall at Old Dutch Church on both Friday & Saturday night.

The DAR House will be open for tours by DAR staff. The back porch is currently off limits. Restrooms are not to be used by reenactors.

The Person's House is open for reenactor use. The building will be locked overnight for valuables if needed.

Saturday - October 19th

Location - Senate House

12:00 PM - 3:00 PM - Sandra Spector will have her ongoing presentation, a first person interpretation of Martha Washington.

Saturday - October 19th

Location - Streets Relevant to Tactical Weapons Demonstration

1:45 PM - Staging Begins

Continental Troops will leave camp to stage at the corner of Main Street and Fair Street.

British Troops will leave camp to stage at the front of the Senate House on Fair Street.

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM- Tactical Weapons Demonstration Begins (See Map #1)

British troops will move down Fair Street. Troops will meet up with the Continental troops at the corner of Main street.

Troops will continue down Main Street and make a right onto Green Street. They will then continue down the DAR House & Person's House, onto Crown Street, where the Tactical Weapons Demonstration will end.

NOTE - Artillery should be staged where the Continental troops are.

NOTE - CCM will be responsible for crowd control. High priority!

Saturday, October, 19th

Location: Old Dutch Church

3:00 - 5:00 PM - Colonial Dinner & Ball Set Up

Additional Rooms throughout Old Dutch Church will be available for the following -

- Yellow, OMG Lounge - Overnight camping/sleeping quarters
- Orange, Choir Room - Overnight camping/sleeping quarters
- Gray, Gallery - Ladies Changing Room for the Ball
- Museum - Gentlemen's Changing Room
- Bell Tower - BAR Headquarters and storage

5:00 PM - 10:00 PM - Dinner and Ball at Old Dutch Church

Saturday evening will offer a colonial dinner and ball for reenactors! A catered 18th century inspired dinner will be complimentary to Brigade members held at the Old Dutch Church at 5:30 PM. This will be followed by a Colonial Ball open to the public and reenactor alike and led by the incredible Niel V. De Marino. 18th Century music and dancing will be held from 7:00 PM - 10:00 PM along with a complimentary jollification and desserts.

Sunday, October 20th

Location: Old Dutch Church

10:30 - 11:30 AM - Pastor Rob Sweeney and Henry Cooke

- There will be a joint worship session in the colonial style

11:30 AM - 12:30 AM - Memorial Ceremony

- 65 wreaths will be laid at the individual Revolutionary War Gravesites (Denoted with a flag)
- Each name will be read out
- One large wreath will be laid in honor of those casualties of the Revolution who are unidentified
- Soldiers will accompany the wreath laying and perform a salute